GUIDELINES AND INSTRUCTIONS

(Please read these guidelines and instructions carefully. Only applications that are filled out properly and completely will be processed. No application fees will be refunded)

1. Mississippi Gulf Coast Blues Commission (MGCBC) reserves the right to sell screened/mass produced Blues Festival T-shirts.
 2. All Vendors must declare ahead of time (with this application) what products (including food items) they will be offering for sale.
 3. All profits received from the sale of products will belong to the vendor. Vendors are however responsible for the state sales tax, which will be collected by a representative of MGCBC at the end of the festival. VENDORS CANNOT LEAVE THE FAIRGROUNDS WITHOUT PAYING THE STATE SALES TAXES. Vendors are responsible for paying federal taxes, as applicable.
 4. Vendors must produce to MGCBC insurance documents that cover the sale of their products, at least one week prior to the Festival and the documents must be sent to the address of MGCBC.
 5. Vendors are not allowed to bring pets to the fairgrounds.
 6. Vendors are not allowed to bring alcoholic beverages into the fairgrounds.
 7. Vendors are to bring their own electrical extension cords and water hoses (if needed). No electrical generators are allowed.
 8. It is the Vendor's responsibility to comply with all applicable State and Federal government regulations, including safe food handling requirements (if applicable).
 9. Vendors using heat and/or flammable liquids must have a fire extinguisher at their disposal. The fire extinguisher must have a current inspection sticker or tag.
 10. No glass containers (tumblers, bottles, etc.) are allowed
 11. Vendors are not allowed to reproduce entertainment CDs at the fairgrounds on the day of the festival
- Vendors are encouraged to purchase AD spaces in the Festival brochure. Contact MGCBC for prices
 - Tickets, AD space in the festival brochure and Vendor fees must be paid with separate checks or money orders
 - Vendors are allowed to start setting up in the fairgrounds at 8:00 AM on the day of the show.
